When choosing who we work with as ambassadors we don't only look at accounts with highly engaged audiences, but also on-brand photography that is consistently well lit, clear, and showcases our products nicely.

All the imagery show our products nicely, are fresh & well lit and blend perfectly with our brand and profile. The tone of the photography is warm and clean.

We also love it when our ambassadors use there creativity and suprise us with great imagery like the birthday celebration of Penny (image right corner).
